

Welcome to STUDENT ORIENTATION

Academic Support

Sophomore Struggles

Studying

- How often do you study?
- In what study environment are you most academically productive?
- Typically, do you meet homework due dates?
- What time(s) do you study?

Studying

Interim Deadlines...

- “I’m a pro!”
- “What’s that?”

How do you take breaks?

Be thoughtful about how you spend your time during a study break.

Consider...

- What do you think about group work?
- What subject do you will struggle with most?

Get Organized & Stay Focused

- Google Calendar
- Excel-Student Calendar
- Trello
- myHomework
- Habitica
- iStudiez Pro
- Studios
- Things 3
- Evernote
- Pocket Schedule Planner
- Google Keep
- Flipd
- Tide
- Forest

Communication

How to ask a question...

- During class
- With a group
- One on one
- Meeting the teacher outside of class
 - Office Hours
 - Email

I wonder...

- How will you respond if you earn a “C-” on a math test?
- What class(es) do you think you will struggle with the most?

Academic Supports

- Teachers
 - Instructional Program Aid, Mathematics
- Learning Strategies Coordinator
- Academic Support Specialist
- Director of Pre-Enrollment Programs
- Writing Center
 - Director of Writing Center
 - Writing Center Tutors

Academic Supports

- Residential Counselor
- School Counselor
- Advocate/Adult “Go To” Person
- Peer Tutors
- Peers

Study Time

I Day

- Teacher Office Hours
- Study Groups

Times to Study

- Breaks in the day
- After dinner
- Sophomore Study Hours: Mon, Tues, Wed & Thurs from 7p-9p
- Weekends

Consider

- Where will you study?
- What is your relationship with your laptop/iPhone?
- Following a schedule
- Working with peers

You will do GREAT THINGS!
WELCOME!

Amy Keck, Learning Strategies Coordinator

akeck@imsa.edu

A109, Writing Center